The Delaware Division of the Arts Mezzanine Gallery is pleased to present an exhibition of original work by Nancy Josephson from December 5 -24, 2014. The Gallery, open weekdays from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., is located in the Carvel State Office Building, 820 N. French Street, Wilmington. A reception will be held for the exhibition where the public can meet the artist on Friday, December 5, 2014 from 5:00-7:30 p.m.

The exhibition presents a selection of recent work by Josephson. The objects on view feature numerous mosaic-like panel images executed in a variety of materials. Josephson utilizes extensive beadwork, sequins, and glass fragments in the creation of figurative and sculptural imagery imbued with a rich iconography.

Josephson is the recipient of a 2014 Delaware Division of the Arts Established Professional Fellowship in Crafts. She has traveled and exhibited her work widely. Josephson lives and works in Wilmington, Delaware.
